Applicability:

This Policy applies to directors, senior management including its Key Managerial Personnel (Hereinafter referred to as "KMP") and other employees of the Company.

Guiding principle:

The guiding principle is that the nomination, terms of employment and remuneration should effectively help in attracting and retaining committed and competent personnel. While designing remuneration packages, industry practices and cost of living are also taken into consideration.

(1) NOMINATION:(A) Directors:

The appointment of the Non-Executive and Independent Directors are subject to the recommendation of NRC and approval of the Board of Directors and Shareholders. The Company shall comply with the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 and the related rules framed thereunder, from time to time, for appointment of the Managing Director, Executive Director and Independent Directors.

(B) Key Managerial Personnel (KMP):

Appointment and removal of KMP are subject to the approval of the NRC and the Board of Directors.

(C) Senior Management:

The Managing Director is authorised to make appointment and removal of senior management personnel. The same will be reported to the Board in the next Board Meeting.

(D) Other employees:

Other employees will be appointed by the Managing Director from time to time.

(2) REMUNERATION:

The NRC while designing the remuneration package considers the level and composition of remuneration to be reasonable and sufficient to attract, retain and motivate the person to ensure the quality required to run the company successfully.

The NRC while considering a remuneration package must ensure a balance between fixed and performance linked variable pay reflecting short and long term performance objectives appropriate to the working of the Company and its goals.

The NRC considers that a successful Remuneration Policy must ensure that some part of the remuneration package is linked to the achievement of corporate performance targets and a strong alignment of interest with stakeholders.

Reward principles and objectives:

The Company's Remuneration Policy is guided by a reward framework and set of principles and objectives as more fully and particularly envisaged under section 178 of the Companies Act 2013, inter alia principles pertaining to determining qualifications, positive attributes, integrity and independence etc.

Remuneration also aims to motivate personnel to deliver Company's key business strategies, create a strong performance-oriented environment and reward achievement of meaningful targets over the short and long-term.

(A) Non-Executive Directors:

As per this Policy, the non-executive directors are paid remuneration in the form of sitting fees for attending Board Meetings and Committee meetings thereof, as fixed by the Board of Directors of the Company not exceeding the prescribed limit as per Companies Act, 2013.

(B) Managing Director:

Remuneration of Managing Director reflects the overall remuneration philosophy and guiding principle of the Company. When considering the appointment and remuneration of Managing Director, the NRC considers pay and employment conditions in the industry, merit and seniority of the person and the paying capacity of the Company. The term of office and remuneration of Managing Director are subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, Shareholders and also subject to the approval of the Central Government (if required to be obtained) and the limits as prescribed under the Companies Act, 2013 and the related rules made there under read with Schedule V, as amended from time to time.

The Managing Director's remuneration comprises of salary, perquisites and performance based commission/reward apart from retirement benefits like Provident Fund, Superannuation, and Gratuity etc. as per the Rules of the Company.

The Managing Director is also entitled to customary non-monetary benefits such as Company Car, Health Care Benefits, Leave Travel, Communication Facilities, etc.

(C) Whole Time Directors:

While considering the appointment and remuneration of Whole Time Directors, the NRC shall consider pay and employment conditions in the industry, merit and seniority of the person and the paying capacity of the Company. The term of office and remuneration of Whole Time Directors are subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, Shareholders and subject to the approval of the Central Government (if required to be obtained) and the limits as prescribed under the Companies Act, 2013 and the related rules made thereunder read with Schedule V, as amended from time to time.

The remuneration of Whole Time Directors comprises of salary, perquisites and performance based commission/reward apart from retirement benefits like Provident Fund, Superannuation, Gratuity etc. as per the Rules of the Company.

The Whole Time Directors are also entitled to customary non-monetary benefits such as Company Car, Health Care Benefits, Leave Travel, Communication Facilities, etc.

(D) Employees:

Remuneration of other employees is decided by the Managing Director, where applicable, broadly based on the Remuneration Policy of the Company. Total remuneration comprises of:

(1) A fixed base salary - set at a level aimed at attracting and retaining executives with professional and personal competence, showing good performance towards achieving Company goals.
